Glory to Jesus Christ!

As a sculptor using clay sculptures works of art, so a priest and a catechist sculpture an image and likeness of Jesus Christ in the soul of a child which by its very nature is soft as wax. It is as if they were painting an icon of Christ, and, obviously, the more care, knowledge, artistic skill... a feel for the child's emotions and character needs, his errors and passions, the more prayer and sacrifice is put into this work, the more perfect and greater will be the artistic work of their hands[...]»<sup>1</sup>.

Dear Catechists!

I warmly greet you on the Day of the Catechist. Being a Catechist is not a profession, it is a vocation: to testify of Christ, to lead to Christ, to inspire others with His love.

Therefore, I sincerely thank you for the sacrificial service that you make throughout the year in all sections of catechesis.

Equally, I want to address all who help carry out the catechetical ministry in our Church: parish priests, parish councils and especially parents and family, who play an important role in spiritual growth in the faith. Without your witness, catechesis will not be able to realize its purpose.

I want to emphasize that the catechism does not end with the preparation for the First Confession and Solemn Communion, but lasts for a lifetime. Therefore, I ask you make sure that your children continue to participate in catechesis in your parish.

The Synod of Bishops this year has devoted much attention to the liturgical and prayer life of the Ukrainian Catholic Church. It is very important that all of us are prayerful people, who lead others to prayer. To accomplish this, we need to explain the meaning of worship and prayer. Particular attention should be paid to the fact that everyone we catechize should actively participates in the liturgical life of the Church.

God's blessing in your ministry for the good of the Church and our people. I entrust all of you the welfare of the Holy Mother of God of Perpetual Help, who will always help us in our search for Her Son.

The blessing of the Lord be upon you!

+ Peter

Publicly Funded Spiritual Care in Saskatchewan is Changing

All faith leaders and practitioners in Saskatoon, as well as all interested and concerned people are invited to an information and education meeting concerning the elimination of the Spiritual Care Department in the Saskatoon Health Region:

7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, Tuesday, 3rd October 2017

Main Hall, Holy Family Roman Catholic Cathedral (123 Nelson Road)

To implement the government's decision announced in this year's provincial budget, on September 27th the spiritual care department in the Saskatoon Health Region is being eliminated. For faith leaders and practitioners this means, among other issues:

- There will not be support staff to assist faith based visitors in locating patients or to respond to patients' or families' spiritual care questions
- There will be no one in the healthcare system to advocate for patients', families', or faith based institutions' religious or spiritual needs
- There will be no one to mediate between faith based visitors and the healthcare system in situations of conflict or of special religious or spiritual concerns relating to health care

Representatives from the Canadian Association for Spiritual Care, Saskatchewan Region and fulltime denominational chaplains will speak to the emerging local situation in Saskatoon and in Saskatchewan more generally. There will also be a call for volunteers to become involved in guiding the direction of publicly funded spiritual care in Saskatchewan. Please direct your questions to CASC.SK.Advocacy@gmail.com.
