Glory to Jesus Christ!

With fall comes change.... Our culture pushes us to hurry, get it done, now! For our spiritual integrity, we do well to take a longer view beyond the present moment, to look out into the future, beyond today, this week, this year. Thanksgiving is not about a day but about a season - a season of gratitude!

May God's abundant blessings accompany us in the coming days as we remember and recall with gratitude in our hearts, all that he has done for us. May we respond to his grace with heartfelt joy so that our face will be for all an encounter with holiness, mercy, compassion, and love. Even if we eat too much, there is still plenty of room for lots of gratitude and joy!

Sympathy and prayers for the Bodnar Family on the passing of their mother and grandmother +Patricia, whose funeral was celebrated at Ss. Peter & Paul Bodnari this past Friday.

Each week I'm celebrating an intention for each individual or family members of our parish community (in alphabetical order). It's another way we can pray for each other during these days of being separated. This Saturday at 9:00AM we pray for the Stefanyshyn-Alonso Family: Jean, Elizabeth & Stephana.

Peace be with you,
 Fr. André

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in these Holy Gifts! I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot receive You now, I place before You my whole life and hope, O loving Master; and I ask, pray, and entreat You: Make me worthy to partake in a mystical way and with a pure conscience of Your awesome and heavenly Mysteries: for forgiveness of sins, for the pardon of offenses, for communion of the Holy Spirit, for the inheritance of the kingdom of heaven, for confidence before You, and not for judgment or condemnation. I embrace You as You enter and abide in me, and I unite myself completely to You. Permeate my soul and body, and never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Memories of Father Volodymyr Iwaszko

The Youth and Young Adult Ministry of our Ukrainian Eparchy of Saskatoon has started working on the translation of a book by Fr. Volodymyr Iwaszko, from Ukrainian into English, for publication.

We are also planning to create a video about Fr. Iwaszko's life in Canada, while the young people from Ukraine are working on a video about Father Iwaszko's life before his immigration to Canada. This is a joint Ukrainian Canadian Youth project.

These two videos, along with the published book, will be presented at a "Remembrance Day" celebration next summer in honour of Father Volodymyr Iwaszko.

We are asking people who knew Fr. Volodymyr Iwaszko to share their memories, along with any photos, with us, so that we could include them in this book, or if you would be willing to be interviewed for the video. Please contact Viktoriia Marko for more information at 306-914-0355 or uwitness2youth@gmail.com. Deadline for submitting memories is December 1, 2020.

O God, Trinity of love, from the profound communion of your divine life, pour out upon us a torrent of fraternal love. Grant us the love reflected in the actions of Jesus, in his family of Nazareth, and in the early Christian community. Grant that we Christians may live the Gospel, discovering Christ in each human being, recognizing him crucified in the sufferings of the abandoned and forgotten of our world, and risen in each brother or sister who makes a new start. Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in all the peoples of the earth, so that we may discover anew that all are important, and all are necessary, different faces of the one humanity that God so loves. Amen.

Pandemic, but Make it Fashion: Ukrainian Embroidered PPE in the Time of COVID-19

Friday, October 16, 2020 12 Noon via ZOOM

Throughout times of uncertainty and crisis, we attempt to find comfort in the things we know to be true. For Ukrainians, this has been their identity. During the earliest days of COVID-19, a surge of embroidered Personal Protective Equipment became available. Utilized as a tool of de-Russification, the presence of embroidery not only evokes ancient Ukrainian beliefs and traditions of protection bestowed on the wearer, but it also acts as a bond between people, forming patterns of trust built on cultural connection, when faces are only partially visible. This talk explores embroidery in the post-maidan landscape of Ukraine, looking beyond the decorative elements of adorning ones' self with beautiful clothing. Instead, it looks at the ways people decorate themselves as a form of protest and for the sake of decolonization, even during the pressing times of pandemic.

Katya is a 2nd year MA Thesis student in the department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, pursuing her degree in Media and Cultural Studies. She has spent the last several months modifying her research to accommodate the new limitations and social occurrences of COVID-19. Through generous funding from grants, scholarships, and bursaries from KuFC, CIUS, the Shevchenko Foundation, and the MLCS, Katya has been able to conduct modified research by shifting her focus towards the presence of embroidery in the pandemic.
