PSALM 103

Bless the Lord, O my soul!

You are very great, O Lord, my God;

clothed in pomp and brilliance;
arrayed with light as with a cloak.

Stretching out the sky as a tent-cloth,
covering Your lofty halls with water,
You make the clouds Your conveyance.
You surge on the wings of the wind.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I live.
I will praise my God as long as I last.
Would that my thoughts be pleasing to Him:
and I will rejoice in the Lord.

The sun knows the time of its setting.
You establish darkness, and it is night.
How great are Your works, O Lord!
in wisdom You have wrought them all.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and ever and forever. Amen.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
+ Glory be to You. O God! (3x)

KATHISMA PSALM 120

In my distress I called to the Lord,
and he answered me.
O Lord deliver me from lying lip,
from treacherous tongue.

What will he inflict on you, with more besides,
O treacherous tongue?
Sharp arrows of a warrior with fiery coals of brushwood.

Woe is me that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell amid the tents of Kedar!
All too long have I dwelt with those who hate peace.
When I speak of peace,
they are ready for war.

PSALM 121

I lift up my eyes to the mountains,
whence shall help come to me?
My help is in the name of the Lord,

who made heaven and earth.

May he not suffer your foot to slip;
 may he slumber not who guards you:
Indeed, he neither slumbers nor sleeps,
 the guardian of Israel.

The Lord is your guardian; the Lord is your shade,
 He is beside you at your right hand.
The sun shall not harm you by day.
 Nor the moon by night.

The Lord will guard you from all evil;
 He will guard your life.
The Lord will guard your coming and your going
 Both now and forever.

PSALM 122

I rejoiced because they said to me,
 We will go up to the house of the Lord.”
And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem -
 Jerusalem, built as a city with compact unity.

To it the tribes go up,
 The tribes of the Lord,
According to the decree for Israel,
 To give thanks to the name of the Lord.
In it as set up judgment seats,
 seats for the house of David.

Pray for peace of Jerusalem!
May those who love you prosper!
May peace be within your walls,
prosperity in your buildings.
Because of my relatives and friends
I will say, "Peace be within you!"
Because of the house of the Lord, our God,
I will pray for your good.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,
now and forever and ever. Amen
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! + Glory be to You, O God (3x)

O LORD, I HAVE CRIED

PSALM 140 (Tone 1)

~ Please Stand

O Lord, I have cried out to You, hear me;
Hear me, O Lord!
O Lord, I have cried out to You, hear me.
Receive the voice of my prayer
When I call upon You
Hear me, O Lord!

Let my prayer rise like incense before You;
And the lifting of my hands
as an evening sacrifice
Hear me, O Lord!

~ Please be Seated

For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him there is plentiful redemption;* and it is He who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Tone 5: I am rich in all sorts of passions,* and I am clothed in a garment of hypocrisy,* as I revel in the intemperance of sin.* My lack of mercy is beyond measure,* and I disregard my spirit lying before the gates of repentance.* Starved of every good thing, I suffer from illness.* But You, O Lord, make me like Lazarus who was poor in sin,* so that I will not have to beg for a drop of water* for my tongue suffering from thirst in the eternal fire.* Make me dwell in the bosom of the patriarch Abraham, O Lover of mankind.

Praise the Lord all you nations,
Proclaim His glory, all you people!

Tone 5: As You walked in the flesh, O Jesus,* in the land beyond the Jordan,* You said to those who were with You:* Our friend Lazarus has died and has been placed in the tomb.* But I rejoice for you, my friends,* for you will learn that I know all things,* and that with God, I am one,* even though by nature I appear in human form.* Therefore, let us go and give life to Lazarus* so that Death may recognize this victory,* and the perfect consummation I shall bring about* by granting great mercy to the world.

Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
Eternally will His truth endure.

Tone 6: Now Lazarus has been in the tomb for two days,* and he sees all generations of the dead.* He beholds such strange and awesome things* and a countless number held within the power of death.* His relatives weep bitterly before his tomb;* but Christ is on His way to give life to His friend,* that He may stir up the same joy in the hearts of all.* Blessed are You, O Saviour; have mercy on us.

~ Please Stand

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Tone 6: O Theotokos, you are the true vine,* who brought forth the fruit of Life.* Therefore we entreat you, O Lady:* intercede together with the apostles and all the saints* that our souls be granted peace and great mercy.

(ENTRANCE with candles and incense)

HYMN OF THE EVENING

O Joyful Light! Light and Holy Glory of the Father Immortal
The heavenly, holy the Blessed One, O Jesus Christ!
Now that we have reached the setting of the sun,
And see the evening light we sing to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It is fitting at all times to raise a song of praise in measured melody to You. O Son of God, the Giver of Life. Behold the universe sings Your Glory.

Priest: Let us be attentive! Peace be with all. Wisdom! Let us be attentive!

Prokimen I, Tone 4

I WALK IN THE PRESENCE OF THE LORD* IN THE LAND OF THE LIVING.

verse: I love the Lord, for He has heard the cry of my appeal.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Genesis (43:26-31 and 45:1-16)

Priest: Let us be attentive!

Reader: At that time when Joseph came home, his brothers presented him with the gifts they had brought inside, while they bowed down before him to the ground. After inquiring how they were, he asked them, “And how is your aged father, of whom you spoke? Is he still in good health?” “Your servant our father is thriving and still in good health”, they said, as they bowed respectfully. When Joseph’s eye fell on his full brother Benjamin, he asked, “Is this your youngest brother, of whom you told me?” Then he said to him, “May God be gracious to you, my boy!” With that, Joseph had to hurry out, for he was so overcome with affection for his brother that he was on the verge of tears. He went into a private room and wept there.

After washing his face, he reappeared and, now in control of himself, gave the order, “Serve the meal.” It was served separately to him, to the brothers, and to the Egyptians who partook of his board. (Egyptians may not eat with Hebrews; that is abhorrent to them.) When they were seated by his directions according to their age, from the oldest to the youngest, they looked at one another in amazement; and as portions were brought to them from Joseph’s table, Benjamin’s portion was five times as large as anyone else’s. So they drank freely and made merry with him.

Then Joseph gave his head steward these instructions: “Fill the men’s bags with as much food as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the mouth of his bag. In the mouth of the youngest one’s bag put also my silver goblet, together with the money for his rations.” The steward carried out Joseph’s instructions. At daybreak the men and their donkeys were sent off. They had gone far out of the city when Joseph said to his head steward: “Go at once after the men! When you overtake them, say to them, “Why did you repay good with evil? Why did you steal the silver goblet from me? It is the very one from which my master drinks and which he uses for divination. What you have done is wrong.”

When the steward overtook them and repeated these words to them, they remonstrated with him: “How can my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing! We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money that we found in the mouths of our bags. Why, then, would we steal silver or gold from your master’s house? If any of your servants is found to have the goblet, he shall die, and as for the rest of us, we shall become my lord’s slaves.” But the steward replied, “Even though it ought to be as you propose, only the one who is found to have it shall become my slave, and the rest of you shall be exonerated.” Then each of them eagerly lowered his bag to the ground and opened it; and when a search was made, starting with the oldest and ending with the youngest, the goblet turned up in Benjamin’s bag. At this, they tore their clothes. Then, when each man had reloaded his donkey, they returned to the city.

As Judah and his brothers reentered Joseph's house, he was still there; so they flung themselves on the ground before him. "How could you do such a thing?" Joseph asked them. "You should have known that such a man as I could discover by divination what happened." Judah replied: "What can we say to you my lord? How can we plead or how try to prove our innocence? God has uncovered your servant's guilt. Here we are, then, the slaves of my lord---the rest of us no less than the one in whose possession the goblet was found." "Far be it from me to act thus!" said Joseph. "Only the one in whose possession the goblet was found shall become my slave; the rest of you may go back safe and sound to your father."

Judah then stepped up to him and said: "I beg you, my lord, let your servant speak earnestly to my lord, and do not become angry with your servant, for you are the equal of Pharaoh. My lord asked your servants, "Have you a father, or another brother?" So we said to my lord, "We have an aged father, and a young brother, the child of his old age. This one's full brother is dead, and since he is the only one by that mother who is left, his father dotes on him." Then you told your servants, "Bring him down to me that my eyes may look on him." We replied to my lord, "The boy cannot leave his father; his father would die if he were to leave him." But you told your servants, "Unless your youngest brother comes back with you, you shall not come into my presence again." When we returned to your servant our father, we reported to him the words of my lord.

"Later, our father told us to come back and buy some food for the family. So we reminded him, "We cannot go down there; only if our youngest brother is with us can we go, for we may not see the man if our youngest brother is not with us.” Then your servant our father said to us, “As you know, my wife bore my two sons. One of them, however, disappeared, and I had to conclude that he must have been torn to pieces by wild beasts; I have not seen him since. If you now take this one away from me, too, and some disaster befalls him, you will send my white head down to the nether world in grief.”

“If then the boy is not with us when I go back to your servant my father, whose very life is bound up with his, he will die as soon as he sees that the boy is missing; and your servants will thus send the white head of our father down to the nether world in grief. Besides, I, your servant, got the boy from his father by going surety for him, saying, “If I fail to bring him back to you, father, you can hold it against me forever.” Let me, your servant, therefore, remain in place of the boy as the slave of my lord, and let the boy go back with his brothers. How could I go back to my father if the boy were not with me? I could not bear to see the anguish that would overcome my father.”

Joseph could no longer control himself in the presence of all his attendants, so he cried out, “Have everyone withdraw from me!” Thus no one else was about when he made himself known to his brothers. But his sobs were so loud that the Egyptians heard him, and so the news reached Pharaoh’s palace. “I am Joseph,” he said to his brothers. “Is my father still in good health?” But his brothers could give him no answer, so dumbfounded were they at him.

“Come closer to me,” he told his brothers. When they had done so, he said: “I am your brother Joseph, whom you once sold into Egypt. But now do not be distressed, and do not reproach yourselves for having sold me here. It was really for the sake of saving lives that God sent me here ahead of you. For two years now the famine has been in the land, and for five more years tillage will yield no harvest. God, therefore, sent me on ahead of you to ensure for you a remnant on earth and to save your lives in an extraordinary deliverance. So it was not really you but God who had me come here; and he has made of me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his household, and ruler over the whole land of Egypt.

“Hurry back, then, to my father and tell him: “Thus says your son Joseph: God has made me lord of all Egypt; come to me without delay. You will settle in the region of Goshen, where you will be near me ---you and your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and everything that you own. Since five years of famine still lie ahead, I will provide for you there so that you and your family and all that are yours may not suffer want.” Surely, you can see for yourselves and Benjamin can see for himself, that it is I, Joseph, who am speaking to you. Tell my father all about my high position in Egypt and what you have seen. But hurry and bring my father down here.”

Thereupon he flung himself on the neck of his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin wept in his arms. Joseph then kissed all his brothers, crying over each of them; and only then were his brothers able to talk with him.

Prokimen II, Tone 4

I WILL PAY MY VOWS TO THE LORD,* IN THE PRESENCE OF ALL HIS PEOPLE.

verse: I trusted, even when I said: I am sorely afflicted.

(Then the celebrant taking a candle and the incense blessed the altar and the people sing....)

Priest: Wisdom! Let us be attentive!

(Blessing the people) The Light of Christ enlightens all.

(The people make three prostrations)

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Proverbs (21:23 – 22:4)

Priest: Let us be attentive!

Reader: Thus says the Lord: He who guards his mouth and his tongue keeps himself from trouble. Arrogant is the name for the man of overbearing pride who acts with scornful effrontery. The sluggard's propensity slays him, for his hands refuse to work. Some are consumed with avarice all the day, but the just man gives unsparingly. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination, the more so when they offer it with a bad intention. The false witness will perish, but he who listens will finally have his say. The wicked man is brazenfaced, but the upright man pays heed to his ways. There is no wisdom, no understanding, no counsel, against the Lord. The horse is equipped for the day of battle, but victory is the Lord's.

A good name is more desirable than great riches, and high esteem, than gold and silver. Rich and poor have a common bond: the Lord is the maker of them all. The shrewd man perceives evil and hides, while simpletons continue on and suffer the penalty. The reward of humility and fear of the Lord is riches, honor and life.

All: Amen.

Priest: Glory be to You, O Christ our God, our hope, glory be to You.

All: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Give the blessing.

Priest: Christ our true God, through the prayers of His immaculate Mother, the holy, glorious, and all-praiseworthy apostles, of our father among the saints, Gregory the Great, Bishop of Rome, and of all the saints, will have mercy on us and save us, for He is good and love us all.

All: Amen.
