PSALM 103

Chanted in two choirs, or recited on the reader on a single note

(1) Bless the Lord, O my soul! * You are very great O Lord, my God!

(2) Clothed in pomp and brilliance; * arrayed with light as with a cloak.

- (1) Stretching out the sky as a tent-cloth, * covering Your lofty halls with water.
- (2) You make the clouds Your conveyance. * You surge on the wings of the wind.
- (1) You make spirits Your messengers, * and flaming fires Your attendants.
- (2) You settle the earth on its firm foundation; * it shall stand unmoved from age to age.
- (1) The abyss covers it like a garment; * waters stand over the mountains.
- (2) At Your rebuke they will take flight; * at the peal of Your thunder they will fear.
- (1) They hurdle the hills and run down the dales, * to the place You have chosen for them.
- (2) You have set up a boundary not to be passed; * they shall never return to cover the earth.
- (1) Down in the gullies You make springs to rise; * water shall go down between the mountains.
- (2) They shall give drink to the beasts of the field; * wild asses will seek them to quench their thirst.
- (1) The birds of the sky will abide by them; * from among the rocks they will raise their song.
- (2) From Your lofty halls You refresh the mountains; * the earth shall be fed with the fruit of Your works.
- (1) You make green pastures for the cattle * and food-plants for the service of all,
- (2) So that bread may be brought forth from the earth, * and wine that gladdens the heart of man.

- (1) So that oil may put a gleam upon his face; * and that bread may strengthen the heart of all.
- (2) The trees of the plain will be satisfied, * the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.
- (1) The sparrows will build their nests in them; * and the herons will call them their home.
- (2) To the deer belong high mountains, * to rodents, the shelter of the rocks.
- (1) You have made the moon to mark the seasons; * the sun knows the time of its setting.
- (2) You establish darkness, and it is night * wherein the forest creatures prowl around.
- (1) Young lions roar for their prey, * and call out to God for their meat.
- (2) As the sun rises, they will come together, * and lay themselves down in their dens.
- (1) Man will go out to his labour* and work until eventide.
- (2) How great are Your works, O Lord, * in wisdom You have wrought them all.
- (1) The earth is filled with Your creatures; even the wide and open sea itself, * within it there are countless creeping things, living beings small and large.
- (2) Upon it there are ships a-sailing, * and that great beast You made to have fun.
- (1) All of them look up to You, * to give them their food in due time.
- (2) You provide and they gather up; * You open Your hand and they are full.
- (1) You hide Your face and they cringe; * You suspend their breath, and they die and return to their dust.

- (2) You send forth Your breath and they live; * You renew the face of the earth.
- (1) May the Lord's glory endure forever, * may the Lord rejoice in His works.
- (2) He looks upon the earth and makes it quake; * He touches the mountains and they smoke.
- (1) I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; * I will praise my God as long as I last.
- (2) Would that my thoughts be pleasing to Him, * and I will rejoice in the Lord.
- (1) May sinners vanish from the earth, * and may the wicked be no more. Bless the Lord, * O my soul!
- (2) The sun knows the time of its setting. * You establish darkness, and it is night.
- (1) How great are Your works, O Lord, * in wisdom You have wrought them all.
- ✙ Glory be to the Father and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever * and ever. Amen.
- ✙ Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, * Glory be to You, O God. Three times.

“O LORD, I HAVE CRIED TO YOU”

Psalms 140, 141, 129, 116

Right choir: O Lord, I have cried to You, hear me; * Hear me, O Lord!
* O Lord, I have cried to You, hear me; * receive the voice of my prayer when I call upon You. * Hear me, O Lord!

Left choir: Let my prayer rise like incense before You; * and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice. * Hear me, O Lord!

Then, in two choirs, or recited on the reader on a single note:

- (1) Set a guard, O Lord, before my mouth, * and a portal around my lips.
- (2) Incline my heart away from evil dealings, * from finding excuses for sinful deeds.
- (1) In company with those who work iniquity, * let me not partake of what they choose.
- (2) May the just chasten me with justice and reprove me; * may the oil of the wicked never touch my head.
- (1) Yet even then shall I pray for their welfare. * Their rulers were swallowed near the rock.
- (2) My words will be heard, for they were sweet. * As a lump of clay broken on the ground, so their bones were strewn near the grave.
- (1) To You, Lord, O Lord, my eyes are lifted up. * In You have I hoped; let not my soul be lost.

(2) Keep me from the snare that was set for me, * and from the stumbling-blocks of the wicked.

(1) The wicked shall fall into their own nets, * while I remain alone until I can escape.

Psalm 141

(2) With my voice I cried to the Lord; * with all my voice I implored the Lord.

(1) Before Him I pour out my supplications; * before Him I declare my distress.

(2) When my breath was escaping me, * then you knew my paths;

(1) On the road upon which I was walking, * they set up snares for me.

(2) I looked to my right and observed * there was no one friendly to me;

(1) Even flight was denied me; * there was no one to take care of my life.

(2) I cried out to You, O Lord, and said: * You are my hope, my share in the land of the living.

(1) Listen to my supplication, * for I am laid very low.

(2) Deliver me from my oppressors, * for they have overwhelmed me.

(If 10 stichera are sung): Lead my soul forth from prison, * that I may give thanks to Your name.

The just shall gather around me * when You have been good to me.

(If 8 stichera are sung): Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord; * O Lord, hear my voice!

Let Your ears be attentive * to the voice of my prayer.

(Tone 4): If You mark iniquities, Lord, who can stand?* But with You forgiveness is that You may be revered.

With Your precious Cross, O Christ,* You have put the Devil to shame.* With Your Resurrection You have deadened the sting of sin* and have saved us from the gates of Death.* We, therefore, glorify You, O only-begotten Son of God.

I have waited for You as You have commanded; my soul patiently relies on Your promise,* for it has trusted in the Lord.

O Christ, who granted resurrection to all people,* You were fed like a lamb to the slaughter.* Then the princes of Hades were struck with terror* as they saw the gates of their tearful domain being lifted up;* for Christ, the King of Glory, entered therein* and exclaimed to those in chains: Go forth from here!* And to those in darkness: Go forth into the light!

From the morning watch until night* let Israel trust in the Lord.

What a great wonder!* The Creator of invisible beings suffered in the flesh for mankind* and rose from the dead as immortal.* Come, therefore, all you nations and adore Him;* for through His compassion we have been freed from the snares of the Devil,* and we have learned to praise the one God in three Persons.

(Tone 2): For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him there is plentiful redemption;* and He shall redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

The man who was born blind from birth asked himself:* Was I born blind because of the sin of my parents,* or am I a living sign of the unbelief of the nations?* I am not content to ask whether it is night or day;* my feet can no longer endure tripping upon the stones.* I have not seen the brightness of the sun,* nor have I seen the image and likeness of my Creator.* Yet I beseech You, O Christ, our God,* to look upon me and have mercy on me.

Praise the Lord, all the nations;* proclaim His glory, all you people.

The man who was born blind from birth asked himself:* Was I born blind because of the sin of my parents,* or am I a living sign of the unbelief of the nations?* I am not content to ask whether it is night or day;* my feet can no longer endure tripping upon the stones.* I have not seen the brightness of the sun,* nor have I seen the image and likeness of my Creator.* Yet I beseech You, O Christ, our God,* to look upon me and have mercy on me.

Strong is the love of the Lord for us;* eternally will His truth endure.

Passing by the Temple, Jesus saw a man who was blind from birth.* He had compassion on him and put mud on his eyes.* He said to him: Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.* He washed and recovered his sight;* then he rendered glory to God.* But his neighbours said to him:* Who opened your eyes which no one before could heal?* And he answered them, saying: A man called Jesus.* He told me to go and wash in the pool of Siloam, and now I see.* He is in truth Christ the Messiah, of whom Moses wrote in the Law.* He is the Saviour of our souls.

✝ Glory be to the Father and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

(Tone 5): As You walked along, O Lord,* You found a man who had been blind from birth.* In surprise, the disciples asked You:* Was it because of the sin of this man or his parents* that he was born blind, O Master?* But You, O Saviour, answered them, saying:* Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents,* but that the works of God would be revealed in him.* I must accomplish the works of Him who sent Me,* which no one else can work.* As You said that, You spat on the ground* and made mud from the dust to anoint his eyes.* And You said to him: Go and wash in the pool of Siloam.* When he washed, he was healed and cried out to You:* O Lord, I believe!* And he bowed down and worshiped You.* Therefore, we also cry out to You: Have mercy on us!

Now and forever * and ever. Amen.

A symbol of the undefiled Virgin and bride* was revealed in the Red Sea.* There, Moses divided the waters;* here, Gabriel is the messenger of the miracle.* There, the Israelites crossed the deep and their feet were not even wet;* here, the Virgin gives birth to Christ without human seed.* There, the sea remained uncrossed after the passing of Israel;* here, the immaculate remained incorrupt after giving birth to Emmanuel.* Therefore, O immortal God, who appeared in the flesh as true Man,* have mercy on us!

TRANQUIL LIGHT

Tranquil Light, of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy blessed Father, O Jesus Christ: as we come upon the sunset, as we see the evening light, we sing to God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. At all times You are worthy of being hymned by joyful voices; O Son of God, You are the giver of life. For this the whole world glorifies You.

(Tone 5): O Christ our Saviour,* we lift up our voices in song to glorify You.* For, in Your love for mankind,* You became incarnate without leaving heaven;* You accepted the Cross and death;* You cast down the gates of Hades;* and on the third day You arose from the dead* for the salvation of our souls.

The Paschal Stichera: Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered.*

Today* a sacred Pascha is revealed to us:* a new and holy Pascha;* a mystical Pascha;* a Pascha which is Christ the Redeemer;* a blameless Pascha;* a great Pascha;* a Pascha of the faithful;* a Pascha which has opened for us the gates of Paradise;* a Pascha which sanctifies all the faithful.

*As smoke vanishes, * let them vanish!

Come* from that scene O women bearers of glad tidings,* and say to Sion:* Receive from us the glad tidings of joy* of Christ's Resurrection:* Exult and be glad,* and rejoice, O Jerusalem,* seeing Christ the King* who comes forth from the tomb like a Bridegroom in procession!

So let sinners perish before the face of God, but let the righteous rejoice!*

The myrrh-bearing* women* at the break of dawn* drew near to the tomb of the Life Giver.* There they found an angel* sitting upon a stone,* he greeted them with these words:* “Why do you seek the living among the dead?* Why do you mourn in the incorrupt amid corruption?* Go, proclaim the glad tidings to His disciples.”

This is the day which the Lord has made: let us rejoice and be glad in it!*

Pascha of beauty!* The Pascha of the Lord!* Pascha!* A Pascha worthy of all honour* has dawned on us.* Pascha! Let us embrace each other joyously!* Pascha, ransom from affliction!* For today as from a bridal chamber* Christ has shown forth from the Tomb,* and filled the women with joy saying:* “Proclaim the glad tidings to the Apostles!”

*Glory be to the Father and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

(Tone 8): O Christ our God, spiritual Sun of justice,* by Your pure touch, You enlightened the eyes of him* who from his mother's wombs was with light.* Enlighten the eyes of our hearts* and make us children of the light and of the day,* that we may cry out to You in faith.* How great is your compassion to us,* O lover of mankind, glory to You!

*Now and for ever * and ever. Amen.*

This is the day of Resurrection,* let us be illumined by the Feast!* Let us embrace each other!* Let us call "Brothers"* even those that hate us* and forgive all by the Resurrection,* and so let us cry:

Christ is risen from the dead,* trampling death by death,* and to those in the tombs,* giving life. (3x)
