You put gladness into my heart, more than when grain and wine abound.

Your memorial sacrifice, Christ our God,* became a festive day for the world.* For fishermen were taught by you* to offer you the unbloody sacrifice with bread and wine,* to recall your divine memorial act* which we celebrate; proclaiming:* O Lord, glory be to you.

PROKIMENON

All: I will feed them with the best of wheat, and with honey from the rock I will fill them.

Sing joyfully to God our strength.

I will feed them with the best of wheat, and with honey from the rock I will fill them.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: A reading from the First Letter of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Corinthians. (1Corinthians. 11: 23 - 32)

Priest: Let us be attentive!

~ Please be Seated

Reader: Brothers and Sisters: I received from the Lord what I handed on to you, namely, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread, and after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, after the supper, he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." Every time, then, you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes! This means that whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily sins against the body and blood of the Lord. A man should examine himself first; only then should he eat of the bread and drink of the cup. He who eats and drinks without recognizing the body eats and drinks a judgment on himself. That is why many among you are sick and infirm, and why so many are dying. If we were to examine ourselves, we would not be falling under judgment in this way; but since it is the Lord who judges us, he chastens us to keep us from being condemned with the rest of the world.

Priest: + Peace be with you. Wisdom! Let us be attentive!!

~ Please Stand

All: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Verses: The eyes of all look hopefully to you, and you give them their food in due season.

You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

Priest: Wisdom! Stand aright! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel. + Peace be with all.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Saint John 6: 48 - 54.

All: + Glory be to You, O Lord, glory be to You.

Priest: Let us be attentive!

Reading of the GOSPEL:

The Lord said: "I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate manna in the desert, but they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven for a man to eat and never die. I myself am the living bread come down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread he shall live forever; the bread I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.” At this the Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can he give us his flesh to eat?” Thereupon Jesus said to them: “Let me solemnly assure you, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. He who feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has life eternal, and I will raise him on the last day.”

All: +Glory be to You, O Lord, glory be to You.

~ Please be Seated

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father. Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, one in being with the Father. Through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit He was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered, died, and was buried. On the third day He rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. All: Alleluia (3x).

I believe, O Lord, and confess that You are truly Christ, the Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am first.

Accept me this day, O Son of God, as a partaker of Your mystical Supper. I will not tell the mystery to Your enemies, nor will I give You a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief, I confess to You:

Remember me, O Lord, when You come into Your kingdom.

Remember me, O Master, when You come into Your kingdom.

Remember me, O Holy One, when You come into Your kingdom.

May the partaking of Your Holy Mysteries, O Lord, be unto me not for judgment or condemnation but for the healing of soul and body.

God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.

I have sinned without number, forgive me, O Lord.
