GLORY TO JESUS CHRIST!

In our Byzantine Christian Tradition, the season of our spiritual preparation for Christmas is called “The Philippian Fast”. It begins on November 15th and lasts for 40 days. As the name suggests, it is an invitation to fasting, or in general, doing something out of the ordinary. Towards that end, Dormition Parish is offering some opportunities to help you and your family on your journey:

1. Lectio Divina - Beginning Saturday, November 20th, and every Saturday at 11:00AM during the Philippian Fast, you are invited to participate in an in-person group Scripture reflection called Lectio Divina. It will involve reading and reflecting on the Sunday Gospels during the Fast. No experience necessary; attend as often as can.

2. Christmas Giving Tree - This year we have chosen to donate to Family Service Saskatoon who has been serving our community for 90 years. We are going to collect money and hygiene products. Please give to this worthy case. Family Service Saskatoon serves individuals, families, and the community to nurture safe, healthy, and respectful relationships. The organization serves thousands of people of all backgrounds and financial means through a variety of programs: community counselling; teen and young parent support; intimate partner violence outreach; victim support in the domestic violence court system; youth exposed to violence; men's program to stop violence; parent education.

The “Giving Tree” will be set up November 14th after the 9:30AM Liturgy - please plan to lend a helping hand to put up the tree. Your help is also requested for church cleaning on Saturday, November 20th at 1:00PM. Finally, a 4th photo session has been added on Monday, November 22 from 2:30PM to 8:30PM at Dormition Parish Auditorium. Book a photo session at <https://form.jotform.com/Glova/saskatoon-photo-session> or call the parish office at 306-652-4837.

Have a great week,
Fr. André
