SAINT BASIL THE GREAT

Great Compline
Eve of the Nativity

~ Please Stand

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and forever.

All: Amen.

Come, let us adore the King, our God.

Come, let us adore Christ, the King and our God.

Come, let us adore and bow down to the only Lord Jesus Christ, the King and our God.

PSALM 4

When I call, answer me,* O my just God.

You who relieve me when I am in distress:* have pity on me, and hear my prayer!

Men of rank, how long will you be dull of heart?* Why do you love what is vain and seek after falsehood?

Know that the Lord does wonders for his faithful one;* the Lord will hear me when I call upon him.

Tremble, and sin not;* reflect, upon your beds, in silence.

Offer just sacrifices,* and trust in the Lord.

Many say, “Oh, that we might see better times!”* O Lord, let the light of your countenance shine upon us!

You put gladness into my heart,* more than when grain and wine abound.

As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep,* for you alone, O Lord, bring security to my dwelling.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,* now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, glory be to You, O God! (3X)

GOD IS WITH US

Priest: God is with us! Understand this all you nations, and be humbled, for God is with us.

All: God is with us! Understand this all you nations, and be humbled, for God is with us.

Priest: God is with us! Understand this all you nations,

All: and be humbled, for God is with us.

The priest then intones the following verses, and the people sing after each verse: God is with us...

You mighty ones, be humbled, even if your strength returns, you shall again be defeated, for God is with us.

Whatever conspiracy you shall weave, the Lord shall destroy it, whatever word you shall speak shall not stand even among you, for God is with us.

With the Lord of hosts make your alliance - for him be your fear and your awe, for God is with us.

If I confide in Him, He shall be my sanctification, I shall confide in Him, and I shall be saved by Him, for God is with us.

Behold, I come with the children whom the Lord has given me, for God is with us.

O nation, which is walking in the darkness, expect to see a great light, - upon us, who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, a great light shall dawn, for God is with us.

Indeed, a Child is born to us, the Son, and He is given to us, - his power is upon his shoulder, for God is with us.

And his Name shall be called Messenger of the great wisdom of God, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Master, Prince of Peace, for God is with us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever and ever. Amen. For God is with us.

Priest: God is with us! Understand this all you nations, and be humbled, for God is with us.

All: God is with us! Understand this all you nations, and be humbled, for God is with us.

Priest: God is with us! Understand this all you nations,

All: and be humbled, for God is with us.

Most holy Lady, Mother of God,* intercede for us sinners.

All you heavenly powers, Angels and holy Archangels,* intercede for us sinners.

Holy John, the Forerunner, prophet, and baptist of the Lord Jesus Christ,* intercede for us sinners.

Glorious saints, apostles, prophets, martyrs and all you holy ones,* intercede for us sinners.

You just ones, and you God-bearing Fathers, Anthony and Theodosius and all the miracle-workers of the Caves Monastery,* intercede for us sinners.

O you divine, undefeated and incomprehensible Power of the precious and life-giving Cross,* do not forsake us sinners.

O God, be merciful to us sinners.

O God, cleanse us of our sins* and have mercy on us.

LESSER DOXOLOGY

HYMNS FOR LITIJA

(tone 1)

May heaven and earth rejoice prophetically this day.
May angels and people spiritually celebrate,
for God appeared in the flesh
to those groping in the darkness and resting in a shadow.
Having been born of a Virgin,
a cave and a manger received Him.
Shepherds relate a miracle;
the Magi from the East bring gifts to Bethlehem,
while we, with unworthy lips, render Him angelic praise:
Glory to God in the highest and peace on earth,
for the hope of nations has arrived.
Having come, He has saved us from hostile bondage.

Today heaven and earth unite, for Christ is born.
Today God came to earth in the flesh,
and the human race was lifted up to the heavens.
Today, for the sake of all, He is seen in the flesh,
the One who by nature is invisible.
Let us glorify Him, singing:
Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace which your coming has bestowed on us.
O Saviour, glory to You!

Reader: In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. So he became as much superior to the angels as the name he has inherited is superior to theirs. For to which of the angels did God ever say, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father”? Or again, “I will be his Father, and he will be my Son”? And again, when God brings his firstborn into the world, he says, "Let all God's angels worship him." In speaking of the angels he says, "He makes his angels spirits, and his servants flames of fire." But about the Son he says, "Your throne, O God, will last for ever and ever; a scepter of justice will be the scepter of your kingdom. You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has set you above your companions by anointing you with the oil of joy." He also says, "In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. You will roll them up like a robe; like a garment they will be changed. But you remain the same, and your years will never end."

Reading of the GOSPEL:

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while a Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them. And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.” Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.” When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.” So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

All: Alleluia (3x).

I believe, O Lord, and confess that You are truly Christ, the Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am first.

Accept me this day, O Son of God, as a partaker of Your mystical Supper. I will not tell the mystery to Your enemies, nor will I give You a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief, I confess to You:

Remember me, O Lord, when You come into Your kingdom.
Remember me, O Master, when You come into Your kingdom.

Remember me, O Holy One, when You come into Your kingdom.

May the partaking of Your Holy Mysteries, O Lord, be unto me not for judgment or condemnation but for the healing of soul and body.

God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

God, cleanse me of my sins and have mercy on me.

I have sinned without number, forgive me, O Lord.
