PSALM 103

Chanted in two choirs, or recited on the reader on a single note

(1) Bless the Lord, O my soul! * You are very great O Lord, my God!

(2) Clothed in pomp and brilliance; * arrayed with light as with a cloak.

(1) Stretching out the sky as a tent-cloth, * covering Your lofty halls with water.

- (2) You make the clouds Your conveyance. * You surge on the wings of the wind.
- (1) You make spirits Your messengers, * and flaming fires Your attendants.
- (2) You settle the earth on its firm foundation; * it shall stand unmoved from age to age.
- (1) The abyss covers it like a garment; * waters stand over the mountains.
- (2) At Your rebuke they will take flight; * at the peal of Your thunder they will fear.
- (1) They hurdle the hills and run down the dales, * to the place You have chosen for them.
- (2) You have set up a boundary not to be passed; * they shall never return to cover the earth.
- (1) Down in the gullies You make springs to rise; * water shall go down between the mountains.
- (2) They shall give drink to the beasts of the field; * wild asses will seek them to quench their thirst.
- (1) The birds of the sky will abide by them; * from among the rocks they will raise their song.
- (2) From Your lofty halls You refresh the mountains; * the earth shall be fed with the fruit of Your works.
- (1) You make green pastures for the cattle * and food-plants for the service of all,
- (2) So that bread may be brought forth from the earth, * and wine that gladdens the heart of man.
- (1) So that oil may put a gleam upon his face; * and that bread may strengthen the heart of all.

- (2) The trees of the plain will be satisfied, * the cedars of Lebanon that He planted.
- (1) The sparrows will build their nests in them; * and the herons will call them their home.
- (2) To the deer belong high mountains, * to rodents, the shelter of the rocks.
- (1) You have made the moon to mark the seasons; * the sun knows the time of its setting.
- (2) You establish darkness, and it is night * wherein the forest creatures prowl around.
- (1) Young lions roar for their prey, * and call out to God for their meat.
- (2) As the sun rises, they will come together, * and lay themselves down in their dens.
- (1) Man will go out to his labour* and work until eventide.
- (2) How great are Your works, O Lord, * in wisdom You have wrought them all.
- (1) The earth is filled with Your creatures; even the wide and open sea itself, * within it there are countless creeping things, living beings small and large.
- (2) Upon it there are ships a-sailing, * and that great beast You made to have fun.
- (1) All of them look up to You, * to give them their food in due time.
- (2) You provide and they gather up; * You open Your hand and they are full.
- (1) You hide Your face and they cringe; * You suspend their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
- (2) You send forth Your breath and they live; * You renew the face of the earth.

(1) May the Lord's glory endure forever, * may the Lord rejoice in His works.

(2) He looks upon the earth and makes it quake; * He touches the mountains and they smoke.

(1) I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; * I will praise my God as long as I last.

(2) Would that my thoughts be pleasing to Him, * and I will rejoice in the Lord.

(1) May sinners vanish from the earth, * and may the wicked be no more. Bless the Lord, * O my soul!

(2) The sun knows the time of its setting. * You establish darkness, and it is night.

(1) How great are Your works, O Lord, * in wisdom You have wrought them all.

✝ Glory be to the Father and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit, now and for ever * and ever. Amen.

✝ Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, * Glory be to You, O God. Three times.

“O LORD, I HAVE CRIED TO YOU”

Psalms 140, 141, 129, 116

Right choir: O Lord, I have cried to You, hear me; * Hear me, O Lord!
* O Lord, I have cried to You, hear me; * receive the voice of my prayer when I call upon You. * Hear me, O Lord!

Left choir: Let my prayer rise like incense before You; * and the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice. * Hear me, O Lord!

Then, in two choirs, or recited on the reader on a single note:

- (1) Set a guard, O Lord, before my mouth, * and a portal around my lips.
- (2) Incline my heart away from evil dealings, * from finding excuses for sinful deeds.
- (1) In company with those who work iniquity, * let me not partake of what they choose.
- (2) May the just chasten me with justice and reprove me; * may the oil of the wicked never touch my head.
- (1) Yet even then shall I pray for their welfare. * Their rulers were swallowed near the rock.
- (2) My words will be heard, for they were sweet. * As a lump of clay broken on the ground, so their bones were strewn near the grave.
- (1) To You, Lord, O Lord, my eyes are lifted up. * In You have I hoped; let not my soul be lost.

(2) Keep me from the snare that was set for me, * and from the stumbling-blocks of the wicked.

(1) The wicked shall fall into their own nets, * while I remain alone until I can escape.

Psalm 141

(2) With my voice I cried to the Lord; * with all my voice I implored the Lord.

(1) Before Him I pour out my supplications; * before Him I declare my distress.

(2) When my breath was escaping me, * then you knew my paths;

(1) On the road upon which I was walking, * they set up snares for me.

(2) I looked to my right and observed * there was no one friendly to me;

(1) Even flight was denied me; * there was no one to take care of my life.

(2) I cried out to You, O Lord, and said: * You are my hope, my share in the land of the living.

(1) Listen to my supplication, * for I am laid very low.

(2) Deliver me from my oppressors, * for they have overwhelmed me.

(If 10 stichera are sung): Lead my soul forth from prison, * that I may give thanks to Your name.

The just shall gather around me * when You have been good to me.

(If 8 stichera are sung): Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord; * O Lord, hear my voice!

Let Your ears be attentive * to the voice of my prayer.

If You mark iniquities, Lord, who can stand? * But with You forgiveness is that You may be revered.

(Tone 2): O Christ, You have abolished the curse of the tree by Your Cross;* You have destroyed the power of death by Your burial,* and You enlightened the human race by Your resurrection.* Therefore, we cry out to You:* O God and Benefactor, glory to You!

I have waited for You as You have commanded; my soul patiently relies on Your promise,* for it has trusted in the Lord.

O Lord, the gates of death opened before You in fear,* and the gatekeepers of Hades were filled with dread at the sight of You.* You smashed the gates of brass and crushed the posts of iron.* Then You burst our chains asunder,* and led us out from the darkness, away from the shadow of death.

From the morning watch until night* let Israel trust in the Lord.

(Tone 5): Shine, O Cross of the Lord,* shine with the light of your grace upon the hearts of those that honour you.* With love inspired by God, we embrace you, O desire of all the world.* Through you our tears of sorrow have been wiped away;* we have been delivered from the snares of death* and have passed over to unending joy.* Show us the glory of your beauty* and grant to us your servants* the reward of our abstinence,* for we entreat with faith your rich protection and great mercy.

For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him there is plentiful redemption;* and He shall redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Hail, life-giving Cross,* the fair Paradise of the Church,* Tree of incorruption that brings us the enjoyment of eternal glory:* through you the hosts of demons have been driven back;* and the hierarchies of angels rejoice with one accord,* as the congregations of the faithful keep the feast.* You are an invincible weapon, an unbroken stronghold;* you are the victory of kings and the glory of priests.*

Grant us now to draw near to the Passion of Christ* and to His Resurrection.

Praise the Lord, all the nations;* proclaim His glory, all you people.

Hail, life-giving Cross,* unconquerable trophy of the true faith,* door to Paradise, succour of the faithful,* rampart set about the Church.* Through you the curse is utterly destroyed,* the power of death is swallowed up,* and we are raised from earth to heaven:* invincible weapon, adversary of demons, glory of martyrs,* true ornament of holy monks, haven of salvation* bestowing on the world great mercy.

Strong is the love of the Lord for us;* eternally will His truth endure.

Come, Adam and Eve, our first father and mother,* who fell from the choir on high through the envy of the murderer of man,* when of old with bitter pleasure you tasted of the tree in Paradise.* See, the Tree of the Cross, revered by all, draws near!* Run with haste and embrace it joyfully,* and cry out to it with faith:* O precious Cross, you are our succour;* partaking of your fruit we have gained incorruption;* we are restored once more to Eden,* and we have received great mercy.

✝ Glory be to the Father and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

(Tone 3): O Christ our God, of Your own will You have accepted Crucifixion,* that all mankind might be restored to life.* Taking the quill of the Cross, out of love for man* in the red ink of royalty with bloody fingers* You signed our absolution.* We are in danger once again of being parted from You;* O forsake us not!* Take pity on Your people in distress,* for You alone are longsuffering. Rise up and fight against our enemies in Your almighty power.

Now and for ever * and ever. Amen.

(Tone 2): O Virgin, the shadow of the Law passed away* with the realization of grace.* For as the bush had burned without being consumed,* so you gave birth while a virgin* and you remained a virgin.* Instead of the pillar of fire there rose the Sun of Justice.* Instead of Moses, Christ God came forth,* the Saviour of our souls.
